

If you are arrested, stay calm

You have the right to

- have someone informed of your arrest. You can ask the police to ring the LEGAL SUPPORT number
- legal advice at any time. If you need this, ask the police to call a solicitor for you
- see a doctor, if you are ill or injured
- a copy of the PACE Codes of Practice – which sets out your rights
- You have the right to silence
- If you do not have a UK passport, you may contact your High Commission/Embassy or consulate. You may ask for an interpreter
- You have to give the police a verifiable name and address
- You do not have to give your date of birth, although refusal can lengthen your detention
- After you have been charged, the police have the right to take your finger prints, DNA and your photograph

ON RELEASE PLEASE TELL
